Lindsay DuHadway – Professional Summary

Clearinghouse CDFI proudly welcomes new Receptionist/Office Assistant/Notary, Lindsay DuHadway, to the team. Lindsay's background is multi-faceted, centering around the tech start-up space with experience in marketing, web design, software development, and operations. Lindsay is passionate about art and is proud to have studied at the San Francisco Art Institute. She enjoys traveling with her husband and photographing their adventures, gardening, and generally being outdoors.

In her new role at Clearinghouse CDFI, Lindsay assists the team, maintains the office, and enjoys speaking with potential borrowers, learning about their loan scenarios, and connecting them with the Business Development team. Lindsay fits right into her role at Clearinghouse CDFI because she thrives connecting with people and finding ways to support them. She is thrilled to be part of a company that creates opportunity in diverse communities.

Welcome to Clearinghouse CDFI, Lindsay!
